Georges caught in secret affair

Undersized Penis officers detained Big George and Little George after stumbling upon a sexual tryst between the two mascots in a Marvin Center bathroom Tuesday night.

UPD Chief Brontosaurus Mullethead said the two mascots had been engaging in "freaky" sexual behavior in Jew-W bathrooms since meeting up at a basketball game two years ago.

At 9 p.m. Tuesday night, a bald UPD storm trooper in a yellow shirt found Big George mounting his smaller, supple companion with his 14-inch schlong. Big George was heard screaming, "Who's your first president, bitch?" as he held a musket to Little George's head.

Officers arrested Big George but did not have to detain Little George because he was already wearing handcuffs and had a piece of masking tape around his mouth, Mullethead said.

"Apparently they like it rough," Mullethead said. "We had to take Little George to the hospital for severe rectal bleeding - he seemed to be enjoying it, though, because our officer reported that he was smiling the whole time."

UPD also nabbed a voyeur, later identified as Jew-W's other mascot - the Hippo - for watching Big George and Little George have sex while he jumped around and made a complete ass out of himself.

A dejected Hippo mascot, led away from the bathroom in cuffs and ankle chains, said he was upset that the Georges didn't let him make the tryst a menage a trois.

"I guess I was too much hippo for them," he said.

Mullethead said Big George and Little George will be charged with public indecency and could go to prison for several years.

"They'd probably enjoy that, though," she remarked. "Little George can be some guy's bitch, and Big George can pimp hoes like his name is Dolemite."

In a jailhouse interview, Big George defended his actions, saying he "was just masturbating - playing with my Little George. That kid's got a butt that won't quit."

While most administrators said they were shocked to hear about the arrests, Jew-W President Sippin Juice IndaTrachtenhood said he encouraged the two

Jew-W builds wall

■ Univ. assassinates Foggy Bottom leader in targeted killing

The University began construction on a three-mile security fence along the West End this week as part of its plan to unilaterally separate itself from Foggy Bottom, just days after its "targeted killing" of the Fighting and Bitching Association president.

The wall, which will cut into historic Foggy Bottom and include every townhouse and apartment building where at least one student currently lives, is being protested by community members, who say GW is turning the small area they have left into a "bantustan" surrounded by an "apartheid wall."

The move comes after University military forces this week attacked and killed Ronsheik Ahmed Croakome, the spiritual leader and president of the FBA, in what it is being called a "targeted killing" of the mastermind of an elderly terrorist organization.

The attack drew emotional protests yesterday from Foggy Bottom residents, many of whom revered Croakome as a symbol of their resistance to GW's expansion, and vowed to avenge his death after a three-day mourning period.

They were pleased to note, however, that Croakome is now among 72-year-old women, none of whom are virgins.

GW President Sippin Juice IndaTrachtenhood said he personally authorized the attack on "one of the foremost leaders of the Foggy Bottom terrorist murderers," claiming Croakome was responsible for organizing scores of lawsuits and complaints that threatened the pockets of his administration.

"It's on, beeyotchies!" he declared. "Wahhhh wahhhh. Look at me. I'm Foggy Bottom. My pussy hurts."

The attack on Croakome, in which GW fired a missile at him as he was leaving his Foggy Bottom townhouse, came after several failed assassination attempts over the past year. The FBA president had long resisted the construction of GW's security fence along the West End, which he said was "like a cat marking its territory."

Unconfirmed reports say that as IndaTrachtenhood gave the final go-ahead for the killing, he exclaimed, "Listen to this cat: 'Meoooooow!!!'"

When asked of his plans to expand beyond Dupont Circle, IndaTrachtenhood said, "This has nothing to do with your question, but I remember this story about a

Campus adopts 24-hour plan

by Jewlie Whoredom
Manage this, bitch

The University will institute a round-the-clock schedule starting next year, allowing Jew-W to fully utilize all campus facilities.

Half the student body will take classes from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., while the other half will learn from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. Students, all of whom must reside on campus, will then sleep in their residence halls for the other half of the day.

"Society has deemed darkness to mean sleep, but who says we have to follow what society tells us?" said University President Sippin Juice IndaTrachtenhood. "Jew-W is a groundbreaking institution. We'll be the first institution in the nation to have a 24-hour schedule."

The same number of "day" and "night" students will reside in one room, allowing Jew-W to fit twice as many students into residence halls. For example, a quad will host four sleeping students during the day and a different set of students during the night.

The new schedule will also allow Jew-W to appease the Bigbad Zoning Assholes, which mandates that 70 percent of students, including all freshmen and sophomores, live on campus or outside Foggy Bottom by fall 2006.

"You see, if you require 100 percent of students to live on campus and there are double that many residing in the same room, there are really 200 percent of students living on campus," said University Senior Bullshitter Chuck Barbarino with a sly grin. "There's no outsmarting us."

Since twice as many students will be enrolling at Jew-W, housing and tuition revenue will double.

Officials said they plan to build more "mixed-purpose" buildings, giant lobbies, shimmering columns and Subways with the extra funding. They were considering constructing a building with one giant lobby and many gold columns on the old hospital site, to outdo the Great Hall and the Elliott School lobby.

"This time we'll make the column a bright blue color, to go along with buff one already in Really Really Great Hall," IndaTrachtenhood said. "It would be a perfect example of the pride all students should have in Jew-W, even if we aren't in the Top 50."

Jew-W's 24-hour schedule was met by anger and rage from the Protesting Stupid Unnecessarythings group and the Faculty Bitches. Four PSU members rallied outside Fried Rice Hall, throwing GWopoly pieces and Chick-fil-A nuggets at top administrators' windows as soon as they heard the news.

"Hell, no! We won't go!" said protesters, who were joined by blow-up rodents and felines. "Six-to-six class sucks! We need sleep!"

When asked why only four

Jew-W girls turn to lesbianism

Female students said they are turning to lesbianism and masturbation in response to the disproportionate numbers of gay, metrosexual and ugly guys at the University.

In recent weeks, girls have begun growing armpit hair and burning their bras in Kogan Plaza. Females have also been seen straddling the gold column in the Marvin Center and setting their cell phones on vibrate and sticking them in their vaginas.

"This is fabulous," said University President Sippin Juice IndaTrachtenhood. "If this type of behavior continues, we will bar all attractive, straight male students from campus, giving the girls no other option."

Several female students, especially those who have been at Jew-W for four years, said they are "traumatized" by the lack of "worthwhile testosterone."

"This hideous guy was hitting on me," junior Cunt Lova said. "A few beers later he was kinda lookin' good. We started hooking up and it was like, two inches? Puh-lease. I can do it better myself."
